Virginia Libraries is a quarterly journal published by the Virginia Library Association whose purpose is to develop, promote, and improve library and information services and the profession of librarianship in order to advance literacy and learning and to ensure access to information in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

The journal, distributed to the membership, is used as a vehicle for members to exchange information, ideas, and solutions to mutual problems in professional articles on current topics in the library and information field. Views expressed in Virginia Libraries are not necessarily endorsed by the editors or editorial board.

The Virginia Library Association (VLA) holds the copyright on all articles published in Virginia Libraries whether the articles appear in print or electronic format. Material may be reproduced for informational, educational, or recreational purposes provided the source of the material is cited. The print version of Virginia Libraries is designed by Lamp-Post Publicity in Meherrin, Virginia. The electronic version of Virginia Libraries is created by Virginia Tech's Digital Library and Archives and is available at <http://scholar.lib.vt.edu/ejournals/VALib> or as a link from the Virginia Library Association website (<http://www.vla.org>) and the Directory of Open Access Journals (<http://www.doaj.org/>). Virginia Libraries is indexed in Library Literature, a database produced by the H.W. Wilson Company.

Items for publication and editorial inquiries should be addressed to the editors. Inquiries regarding membership, subscriptions, advertising, or claims should be directed to VLA, P.O. Box 56312, Virginia Beach, VA 23456.

The guidelines for submissions to Virginia Libraries are found on page 3.
